

BORGO SAN VINCENZO

WINE WEEK

OCTOBER 14 - 19, 2023

WINE WEEK AT BORGO SAN VINCENZO

Borgo San Vincenzo is proud to partner with the Wine Scholar Guild in offering an exclusive Wine Week from October 14 — 19, 2023. Guests are invited to join for special experiences throughout the week on a shared basis, guided by Andrea Eby, the head of the Italian Wine Scholar™ program.

Meet local winemakers and connect with fellow wine enthusiasts. Enjoy guided wine-pairing dinners featuring wines from throughout Italy. Through private tours and tastings, get a feel for the nuances in the Tuscan region that have helped give life to different traditions around food and wine.

Borgo guests are able to sign up for any (or all!) events happening during the week. Spaces are limited with many experiences limited to just 12 participants.

About Andrea Eby, Italian Wine Scholar Director

Andrea Eby is the Italian Programs Director at the Wine Scholar Guild, with over a decade of experience in the wine trade as a wine buyer and as an educator.

Andrea runs wine education classes and has worked as an assessor at WSET's Educator Training Programme. She is a sommelier instructor and a member of the CAPS National Education Committee.

Andrea has judged at the International Wine & Spirits Competition, International Wine Challenge, and Vinitaly 5 Star Wines. She joined the Decanter World Wine Awards as a judge in 2022.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Saturday, October 14th

WINE TASTING AT BORGO SAN VINCENZO

Kick off the week with a taste of Montepulciano - enjoy a classic method sparkling, white, rosé, and two reds from the region to understand the winemaking traditions of the area, plus ways young winemakers are innovating with traditional method sparklings and full-bodied whites. €50 per person

Sunday, October 15th

WINES OF ITALY WINE PAIRING DINNER

Join us for a guided wine pairing dinner highlighting wines from different regions of Italy. Led by Andrea Eby and BSV's F&B Director, sip wines from throughout Italy and get a bit of insight into each. €125 per person

Monday, October 16th

WINE TASTING IN MONTEPULCIANO

Montepulciano's wines with your wine host — a perfect way to learn more about local wines and ask questions with our wine expert! With a dedicated driver, visit three different wineries in the region and enjoy lunch with a view. Meet local winemakers while sampling Rosso di Montepulciano, the region's famous Vino Nobile di Montepulciano, plus Supertuscans from the area. €275 per person

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Tuesday, October 17th

TUSCAN MASTERCLASS AT BORGO

Dig into wines of Tuscany with Chianti Classico, Brunello di Montalcino, Vino Nobile di Montepulciano, plus two Supertuscans, to understand winemaking in the Tuscan region, what makes each unique, DOC/DOCG guidelines — and most importantly, learn which is your personal favorite!

€100 per person

Wednesday, October 18th

WINE TASTING IN MONTALCINO

Head further afield to Montalcino (approximately one hour from Borgo) to sample the region's famous Brunellos and Rosso di Montalcino. With a dedicated driver and your host, enjoy three different wineries in the region plus lunch with a small group.

€300 per person

The Wine Scholar Guild x Borgo San Vincenzo

The Wine Scholar Guild (WSG) is the leading provider of specialized certification programs on the wines of France, Italy, and Spain with a school network spanning 30 countries and 5 continents.

Borgo San Vincenzo has partnered with the Wine Scholar Guild as part of an ongoing commitment to making wine education fun, approachable, interactive, and experiential.